EGC News

EGC News

EGC/NRT Harvest Fair: This is the week! We will be assembling wreaths, bouquets, and other fall decorations for our NRT sale booth at the carriage house at the Sheep Pasture. The building will be open for us to work from 9am to 5pm, Monday, September 28th through Friday, October 2nd. We hope all of our members will participate, so that we can make this a successful fundraiser. There is something for everyone to do. Please come down and join us. We always make it a great time learning how to make many things, and getting to know each other.

We also need volunteers for set up day, Saturday, October 3rd, 9am to 12pm and the fair day, Sunday, October 5th, 8am to 5pm. It is especially important to have lots of help at closing and clean-up time. Please come and volunteer for a couple of hours, or all day. If you have saved and dried flowers, especially roses, or if you have hydrangeas in any color available, please bring them with you to the carriage house this week.

New Members: Three new members were voted in at the September EGC Board meeting. We are pleased to welcome Debby Brocklesby, Harry Lynd, and Karin Newman.

Holiday House Tour: The house tour this holiday season is being called "I'll Be Home for Christmas" and will be held December 12th and 13th. If you have not been called to work on a house, please contact house tour chairpersons Nancy Cohenno or Leslie Mullen.

September Exhibits: Blue Ribbon winners for the exhibits in the month of September are: Cindy Lemish for the Novice Design class. In horticulture Karyn Polisenon won two, Cindy Lemish won two and Karen Cacciapuoti won one blue ribbon. Members are encouraged to bring in flower designs as well as horticultural specimens that they have grown. Details for exhibiting are located on page four of the EGC program book.

Easton Food Pantry: The Easton Garden Club continues to support the Easton Food Pantry with donations brought to our meetings. Kay Fulcher has asked that members please bring non-perishable items or checks made out to the Easton Food Pantry to any of our meetings - anything you can give will always be appreciated. Many thanks to our members, and to Kay for donating her time to this project.

"Blooms!": A flower show presented by the Massachusetts Horticultural Society will be held at the Seaport World Trade Center, March 23-28, 2010. While more details will be available soon, the EGC has entered the Design Division, "The Time of Your Life!" in the club competition class. Anyone interested in helping on the committee for this please email Robin Kallfelz.
